Economic Birds and Bees

The thing that fooled the politician-economists who predicted a postwar employment slump was the rapid growth of business that took up the job slack. They didn't see it coming. They couldn't see it, because they were looking for something else.

They were looking for a way to make profits look bad. No one ever has set down and explained to them about the economic birds and bees. They've never found out where jobs come from. Many of them think all jobs come from politics, which is where they believe all jobs should come from.

The joint committee on the economic report, which is composed of congressmen, has found that corporation expenditures on plant improvement and expansion in the last 10 years were equal to three-fourths of total net profits. In other words, the corporations spent $90,000,000,000 to make more jobs while making a net profit of $11,500,000,000. A large percentage of the net profit also was put back into industry to make more jobs. That's why military demobilization created no mass unemployment. It's why business has been good since the end of the war four years ago. That's where more jobs come from—profit.

And it's why anything that interferes with the confidence that enables business enterprise to make more jobs is a crime against the people themselves. Only those who have been left in ignorance about the economic birds and bees—or who prefer to remain in ignorance—are capable of interfering with the natural source of jobs, which isn't politics but productive enterprise.

Voice On The Party Line

The Gerhart Eisler case has shown what the Communist party line is going to be on future cooperation between the United States and other signatories of the North Atlantic pact.

When Eisler was taken off a Polish ship by British authorities at the request of the United States, he called himself, "the first prisoner of the Atlantic pact."

The fact is, the pact is not yet in force. Eisler jumped bail in the United States. He stowed away, according to his own story, on a foreign ship. He is on trial in this country on two charges and may be imprisoned. Not a word about these things, though in all likelihood he would have been taken off the ship and held for deportation to the United States even if the Atlantic pact never had been proposed.

The twists and distortions of Communist propaganda are notorious. Unfortunately, they have a powerful impact. If the Communist party can plant the suspicion that international cooperation outside the Russian sphere of influence is based on the North Atlantic pact, instead of what remains of international law and decency, what happens to Eisler will be well worth the price.

Goose Feathers

Experts of the senate-house tax committee have poured a dipper of ice water over the fevered brows of federal spenders.

Peering into the fiscal future, the experts see a shortage of about $3,000,000,000 in federal income, beginning next July 1 and lasting for the next 12 months. Either the government will go into the hole by that amount, or it will try to pluck more feathers off the taxpaying goose, or it will have to cut back its own spending to maintain a balanced budget.

Sound financial judgment dictates a cutback in federal spending, the same as every family, every organization and every business must do when income drops below outgo. If the decision were left to financial judgment, that's all there would be to it—a cutback. But the decision involves politics, chiefly the kind of politics which preach that financial judgment should be thrown out of the window to make more room for the thriving bureaucracy of a welfare state.

The practitioners of this kind of politics have never hesitated in the past to push government into the hole and to raise taxes, or both. The condition of the taxpaying goose—whether or not it still had surplus feathers on it that could be plucked—has been the least of their concerns. The monument to their success is that part of the public debt which wasn't caused by the war, plus the collection in peacetime of taxes levied at wartime rates.

They won't hesitate now. But they can be stopped by congress, if the sound thinkers in congress will stand together against the insane credo that only the federal government cannot cut back its spending rate.

Muddled Mata Hari

Anna Louise Strong has told a Boston audience that she infers from Premier Stalin's speeches that Russia is developing the atomic bomb "for industrial purposes."

If that is a sample of the alleged espionage for which the Soviet government expelled the American writer, we certainly hope that she wasn't spying for us.

The Stars Say
By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE
For Wednesday, May 18

BY the use of clear vision, exceptional sagacity and sound ideas, it may be possible to promote certain very clever and astute plans and objectives, and this by the employment of finesse, tact and compromise rather than argument, strife or rash attempts to force the issue, especially in the way of new or untried projects or in fresh fields of operation.

New propositions, strange pastures, change and shrewd acumen should make outstanding success, while reckless or wild impulses could upset well-laid plans or clever strategies. Keep calm, sensible.

Those whose birthday it is, are urged to keep firm grip on faculties, forces and emotions, when attempting the launching of important new objectives, especially when a brilliant plan of action calls for shrewd tactics, finesse and compromise, in making major changes, travel, fresh associations or agreements.

Rash and heedless conduct could upset particularly hopeful and clever projects, calling for sound ideas and far vision as well as controlled manipulation. Persistent labors gain by astute keen strategies, not force or haste.

A child born on this day while having great versatility and initiative could spoil brilliant chances by immature, excitable and feverish efforts.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By WALTER KIERNAN

Tom Dewey toured Windsor castle the other day but King George didn't look any more worried than Truman did when Tom visited Washington.

When they told Dewey that the castle had been in the hands of the royal family for centuries I understand he murmured "you should see our White House."

Tom also got to see a performance of Macbeth which features three witches... possibly picked up a few trade secrets.

All I know is that when the first witch asked "when shall we three meet again?" Tom said "how about Chicago in 1952?"

Meanwhile Mr. Truman is still hot for cutting the national debt but some say just give Godfrey another sponsored hour-a-week and stop worrying.

Arthur made $48,000 last year with a four dollar check and it's not our fault that Harry took piano lessons.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Infection Can Spread Through Body

By HERMAN N. RUNDEN, M.D.

It has been known for years that infection of one part of the body with germs can cause trouble elsewhere. Thus, infections of the teeth, tonsils, sinuses, and other parts of the body may be reflected in disorders of the eyes. Infections of the teeth are particularly likely to lead to eye troubles.

The elimination of these infections is not always an easy matter. For example, if the tonsils are infected, their removal will not get rid of the germs present in the upper part of the throat or on the sides of the throat and nearby tissues. There germs continue to grow and form toxins or poisons which are absorbed into the blood stream. In the same way, draining the infected nasal sinuses will not get rid of all the germs present.

Build Up Resistance

What is necessary in these cases is to build up the patient's resistance to overcome the infection, after as much as possible of the infected tissues have been gotten rid of. Thus, removal of the tonsils will be helpful and the patient's resistance may increase thereafter. He may then be able to make enough antibodies to destroy the germs that remain. However, if the patient's resistance remains at a low level after the operation, the symptoms will continue even though the main source of the infection has been eliminated.

Infections such as I have mentioned may be responsible for inflammation of the lining membrane of the eye called conjunctivitis, or inflammation of the cornea, which is the front part of the eyeball; of the iris, which is the colored portion; and of the back part of the eye, known as the retina. It may be responsible for weakness of muscles, blurring of the eyesight, and eye fatigue.

In The Tonsils

Most of the infections responsible for the eye conditions are in the upper part of the respiratory tract, that is in the tonsils, throat, and sinuses. Many of them are in the teeth and the gums. Not only may these infections produce the eye symptoms, but may also be responsible for such things as headache, weakness, and loss of appetite.

The treatment of the eye disorder caused by infections requires the elimination of the infection at its source. Sometimes the giving of penicillin or streptomycin may be quite helpful, but if the infection has been present for a long time these substances do not have a great deal of value. X-ray treatments are useful in certain instances. After the elimination of the primary infection, the use of a vaccine may be helpful. This should be supplemented by the giving of proper food, vitamins, and plenty of rest.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

M. G. E.: Will cigarette smoking help to keep the weight down?

Answer: I know of no evidence that smoking cigarettes will help to prevent a gain in weight.

Letters to Dr. Runden should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th St., New York City.

The shells of peanuts, which may be burned as fuel, produce a fertilizer, a cork substitute, and a substance valuable in fire-extinguishing mixture.

SO IN ALL THREE cases—Acheson, Madox and the State department's "peace paper"—it's clear this government thinks:

1. It will be a long time before we can be sure of peace.

2. Russia will have to prove it wants peace before we believe it.

What's behind the State department's belief that we'll have to help western Europe arm and stay armed for years? It can be stated A-B-C.

The nations of western Europe are our allies. If they fail, we'll be practically alone in a "hostile world." We need one another if we're to survive.

If we don't help arm them—in the meantime, they'll have to help arm themselves—they may lose confidence in us as allies. In turn, this would weaken their strength and determination to resist aggression.

Sitting idly by, not helping arm them, merely talking of liberating Europe of its overrun, would disillusion our allies. And trying to liberate our allies, after they were crushed, would be costly to us.

If they're unarmed, they're a pushover for Russia which could pick them off one by one by war or threats of war, just as Hitler did

Plan To Decorate Bald Spot Under Capitol's Dome

By DEAN W. DITTMER

WASHINGTON, May 17—(UP)—The house thinks it's time an artist painted on that bare spot under the capitol dome.

It's been bare for 72 years. It is a 26-foot section of the nine by 300-foot frieze circling the dome in the capitol rotunda.

Italian-born Constantino Brumidi, who painted works of art at the capitol for 26 years at $10 a day, began the work in 1877 when he was in his 70s.

One day while sitting on the scaffold 90 feet above the floor, he became ill. He died three months later on Feb. 19, 1880.

Another Italian-born artist, Filippo Costaggini, took over. But there was a difference in the proportions of their work.

The circular frieze begins with the landing of Columbus. It depicts other historical events and was to have ended with the discovery of gold in California.

But when Costaggini finished in about 1881, there still remained a 26-foot bare space. That spot remained completely bare until 1917 when Charles A. Whipple painted a small world war scene in the center as a sample of his work. But congress decided against commissioning Whipple, and the spot remained bare.

Although Costaggini suggested several historic events for the rest of the frieze, congress never let him finish it. Among scenes suggested by Costaggini was Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox. The Civil war scene got an especially cold shoulder.

Now, however, something may be done. The house has approved spending up to $20,000 to complete the frieze. If the senate agrees, capitol architects will hire artists and the 72-year-old bare spot will be no more.

Expect Affiliation

CLEVELAND, May 17—Affiliation with the American and International Council of Churches is expected to be considered at the annual conference now being held by the general association of regular Baptist churches.

The biggest field of starters in Kentucky Derby history was 1928, when 22 horses went to the post. The smallest fields were in 1892 and 1905, when three horses started.

HOFFMAN TELLS CONGRESS FIRST PHASE ECA DONE

WASHINGTON, May 17—(UP)—Foreign aid Chief Paul G. Hoffman told congress that the first phase of western Europe's recovery was nearly completed by the end of 1948.

In his third quarterly report, the Economic Cooperation Administrator said that industrial production in most of the Marshall plan nations was back at prewar levels for the first time.

Hoffman emphasized, however, that an "extensive program of expansion and adjustment of productive capacity" is needed to restore economic independence by the end of the European Recovery Program in 1952.

ECA aid to China, he said, was restricted in the last quarter of 1948 by the "economic and military reverses of the Nationalist government." But he said U.S. aid "made possible a continuation of food rationing in China's principal coastal cities, without which economic collapse and general chaos could not have been avoided."

The ECA report said that at the year's end, eight of the Marshall plan nations had entered, or were well along with the second phase of recovery—readjustment and expansion of their economies. But it conceded that two nations—Turkey and Portugal—need economic development more than recovery aid. It said that France, Italy, Iceland and Trieste have special problems—Communist opposition, inflation, unemployment and the like—which have retarded their recovery.

Highlighting its report for the period ended last Dec. 31, ECA said that as of that date:

Overall industrial production in Europe had exceeded the prewar level.

Steel production and electric power supply were at postwar peaks. Exports were 13 per cent above the 1938 volume.

Prices generally were stable, although inflationary pressures continued strong, requiring governmental economies and fiscal reforms.

Almost $5,000,000,000 had been allocated to ERP countries by the end of the year. In the quarter alone, ECA approved the purchase of $2,114,500,000 worth of goods and services.

Lineman Killed

CANTON, May 17—James E. Vick, 46, of nearby Louisville, a lineman for the Ohio Power Co., was killed yesterday when he touched a conductor at a substation and received an electric shock of 22,000 volts.

The horse Gay World sold for $250 at a Texas yearling sale. Two years later he won 13 races, including the Chicago Derby.

Geraldine Hively Bride Of Vernon R. Weingart

Concord Presbyterian church was the setting Sunday for the beautiful wedding of Miss Geraldine Hively, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hively of the North Benton-Calla rd., and Vernon R. Weingart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weingart of the Stratton rd.

The ceremony was solemnized at 3:30 p. m. by Rev. Charles Best of Pennsylvania Furnace, Pa. In the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

Banked with palms and ferns, the altar was lighted with tall white tapers in seven-branch candelabra. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a period gown of white silk marquisette over satin, designed with a sheer yoke and lace bertha.

On either side of the skirt, which ended in a long train, were tiers of white lace. Her sheer illusion veil trimmed with double rows of matching lace was held in place with orange blossoms. The bride wore a string of pearls, gift of the groom. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Naomi Capel was her cousin's maid of honor. Her gown of daffodil yellow taffeta was styled with a sheer yoke, outlined with a bertha, and a hoop skirt. She wore a net picture hat trimmed with a taffeta bow. Her arm bouquet of pink roses was tied with satin ribbon. Bridesmaids, Misses Della and Verla Weingart, sisters of the groom, and Miss Glennell Hostetter, cousin of the bride, wore orchid gowns and picture hats, made identically to the maid of honor's. They carried yellow roses. The attendants complemented their attractive gowns with strands of pearls.

Sandra Lee Weingart, sister of the groom, and Patty Lou Capel, cousin of the bride, charming little flower girls, were dressed alike in waterfall green taffeta gowns. The gold lockets they wore were the bride's gift.

Kermit Riffle, a cousin of the groom, was best man. Robert Hively, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer and brother-in-law, respectively of the groom, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Hammel played "At Dawn," "I Love You Truly" and "Clair de Lune." She also accompanied Aden Riffle, cousin of the groom, who sang "One Alone" and "Because" and Miss Donna Lou Getz, whose numbers were "O Promise Me" and "Through The Years."

Mrs. Hively chose for her daughter's wedding a grey sheer print with white and rose accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Weingart was attired in a grey print with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white roses.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church social room, which was made attractive with spring flowers. The bride's table was laid with white linen and centered with a five-tiered wedding cake. On either side were tall white tapers in crystal candelabra. Miss Grace Weaver cut the cake.

Following the reception at the church there was a buffet luncheon served at the bride's home for approximately 75 guests.

Some of the guests were from Salem, Lisbon, Leetonia, Youngstown, Akron, Alliance and East Liverpool.

Mr. and Mrs. Weingart are on a honeymoon trip to Washington, D. C., the Smoky mountains and other southern points. For traveling Mrs. Weingart wore a rose print with a skipper blue top and white accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, Hermon and Albert Wright returned Sunday evening from Wallaceburg, Ontario, Canada, where they attended the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Lester Matthews, held Saturday afternoon.

Sara Todd Is Bride Of E. L. Knag

Simplicity was the keynote of the beautiful wedding of Miss Sara Elizabeth Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Todd, S. Main st., Columbiana, to Ernest Lyle Knag, son of Mrs. Mae Knag of Damascus, which took place Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

During the double ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Fred Eisenwein, retired Methodist minister of Columbiana, the bride and groom stood before the fireplace, which was beautifully decorated with ferns, white carnations and branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an ankle-length dress of sheerest white organdy with fitted bodice of embroidered organdy, and the bouffant skirt was paneled in the same material. With it she wore a white hat of open work braid and white accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and stephanotis tied with wide white satin ribbon.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Robert Bell of Damascus, sister of the groom. Her costume was of aqua linen with white eyelet embroidery. With it she wore white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses tied with satin ribbon. Robert Bell served his brother-in-law as best man.

Following and during the ceremony, recordings of traditional wedding music was enjoyed.

Mrs. Todd, mother of the bride, was dressed in navy blue sheers. Mrs. Knag, mother of the groom, wore an ensemble of navy blue and white printed crepe. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

A reception for 50 relatives and friends was held in the dining room of the Todd home. The refreshment table, laid with an heirloom linen damask cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, and decorated with beautifully arranged spring flowers and white tapers in crystal holders. Miss Ruth Henry and Mrs. Otto Stacey served the cake. Mrs. Wilford Stratton and Mrs. Floyd McQuillan, of Salem, business associates of the bride, served punch and coffee.

Guests were from Lisbon, Salem, Homeworth and Beaver Falls. Mrs. Knag is a graduate of Columbiana High school and attended Youngstown college. Mr. Knag is a graduate of Salem High school and served three years in the Air Corps, including service in the European theater. Both Mr. and Mrs. Knag are employees of the Geo. H. Bowman & Son Co. of Salem.

For traveling, Mrs. Knag wore a dressmaker suit of pearl gray gabardine, with matching accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home to their friends at their newly-furnished apartment, 268 1/2 S. Main st., Columbiana.

"We, The Women"
by RUTH MILLETT

Individually and in small groups, women are pretty nice people. But, something seems to happen to them when they lose their individuality in a crowd.

Watch the women next time you go shopping and see if you don't find them, in general, a pretty unattractive lot. Look closely and you'll spot all of these types, and in numbers, too.

The Stoney-faced Sisters, who, if they happen to catch another woman's eye, give her a freezing, haughty stare.

The Shovers who elbow their way through crowds, are always impatient to be served, and don't care how they get what they want just as long as they get it in a hurry.

The Suspicious Sadies who are certain everybody is trying to outsmart them, and are determined not to be outsmarted.

The Messy Mamies who may be good housekeepers at home but who leave public powder rooms looking like pig pens.

The Lookers who will take up a half hour of a clerk's time when they have no intention of buying. Such women use "shopping" as a means of killing time. But they don't hesitate to kill a clerk's time and the time of waiting customers while they are killing their own.

Complainers Are Prevalent
The Complainers who are never satisfied in restaurants, are forever asking for substitutes on a fixed menu, or sending things back because they aren't right.

The Grim Girls who hurry along the streets with their heads thrust forward and the corners of their mouths turned down. A Grim Girl can't buy a 10-cent gadget without turning it into a major decision.

The Haughty Hannahs who get some sort of satisfaction out of ritzing salesgirls and looking down their uncharming noses at any woman who isn't putting on the same act.

The Mean Mamas who yank their small children along as though the kids' arms were made of rubber, and who meet juveniles protests with belligerent threats.

At home or among friends most of these women probably have more pleasing personalities. But when they are unknown members of a crowd, something happens to them. Whatever it is, it isn't pretty. They're not pretty either, are they?

Lausche's Program Lays As Delays Hold Up House And Senate

By REED SMITH
COLUMBUS, May 17—(AP)—Ohio lawmakers are going to have to "step on it" to complete work on Gov. Frank J. Lausche's legislative program and reach final adjournment June 20.

That's the date set by House Democratic Leader A. G. Landon's resolution coming up for action tonight when the legislature starts its 20th week. It probably will be sent to the house rules committee until things look more certain. The senate has to concur in adjournment and that chamber isn't acting as though there is any hurry.

Lausche's program bills are among more than a thousand introduced this session. More doubtless are on the way. So far only 46 have been passed and signed into law. Most are relatively minor in nature.

Only a thin portion of Lausche's program outlined in his Jan. 17 legislative message has been delivered and signed. These laws provide a new state department of natural resources and lower margins for passing some tax levies and bond issues.

Some Near Done

Work is nearly finished on some others but not all of it is to Lausche's liking. He wanted a compulsory program to combat racial and religious discrimination in employment. The senate substituted an educational program for a house-approved FEPC commission with police power. The house acts on the change Tuesday. Acceptance will send the bill to the governor. Rejection probably would leave it up to a house-senate conference committee to seek a compromise that could prove fatal.

Also up for house action Tuesday is a senate-approved bill to establish a disability insurance study commission. It would survey possible ways to provide benefits for workers temporarily jobless because of disability of illness.

A measure to boost unemployment compensation benefits has passed both houses. Senate approval of a few house changes would send it to the governor. Ready for a house vote is a senate-passed bill to tighten coal strip mining laws.

House committees now are studying senate-approved measures to renege election laws and to create a commission to survey Ohio's tax statutes. The senate has house-passed bills to boost workmen's compensation benefits and to aid urban development and public housing.

Dead or dying in the senate are proposals to give Lausche power to remove sheriffs derelict in duty and to institute padlock proceedings against gambling establishments.

Several aid for the aged measures still are pending in committee. School, welfare and tuberculosis programs are wrapped up in the $650,000,000 biennial budget bill in the house finance committee. How soon it will come out and be passed is anyone's guess. Senate finance committee members say they'll take "at least" two weeks to work it over after they get it.

A new type of Navy submarine messenger buoy eliminates the need of deep-sea divers in submarine rescue work.

2,500 Housewives Can't Be Wrong Claims "Wetalene"

"It cleans faster" . . . "It has more uses than any other cleaner" . . . "Costs less" . . . "Does a more thorough job!"

These were the claims of 2,500 housewives of Columbus, Ohio — chosen from all economic levels — who used "Wetalene," the new household cleaner, for the first time last April.

Wetalene Laboratories, Inc., secured the unbiased reaction from 2,500 new users of the product by giving away that many one-pound cartons in exchange for candid opinions on the new product. By telephone and mail the response came in:

"How soon can we buy 'Wetalene' at our own stores?"

Now for the first time the new, granulated cleaning powder is available in local stores. Mixed with warm water, just a tablespoon to a gallon, "Wetalene" offers more uses than any other soapless cleanser. Laundry, painted walls and woodwork, dishes, linoleum, upholstered furniture, porcelain, tile, rugs and carpets, delicate fabrics — these are some of the uses that 2,500 housewives found "Wetalene" does better.

Economical as it is quick and thorough, "Wetalene" is available locally for as little as 25 cents per one lb. 51 cents for three lbs., $1.10 for eight lbs.

DOLLAR SHORTAGE DECREASE FORESEEN

Truman Reports To Congress On ECA Program; Sees Improved Condition

WASHINGTON, May 17—(AP)—President Truman forecast yesterday a 30 per cent slash in the critical dollar shortage of Europe's Marshall plan countries by the middle of the year.

But he coupled with his report of "satisfactory progress" a warning that these nations must achieve "extensive" economic expansion and reform if they are to become independent of American aid by the end of 1952 when Marshall plan dollars are due to give out.

His sum-up was in a report to congress on the work of the Economic Cooperation administration during the last quarter of 1948. Truman also said Communist advances in China have had a "disastrous" effect on the economic and political position of Nationalist China and had thereby limited ECA's activities.

In Europe, Truman said, countries receiving American aid under the Marshall plan had substantially completed the "first phase" of their joint effort to get back on their own economic feet. The President emphasized, that is not enough: They must far exceed their prewar production in order to pay their own way.

Truman reported: "Measured against the program of the organization for European Economic cooperation (Europe's own top recovery committee) for July, 1948, to June, 1949, progress by the end of December was satisfactory. "Realization of production and trade goals for the fiscal year (which ends June 30) is virtually assured and substantial improvement in western Europe's external position may be anticipated. "The total gold and dollar deficit of the ERP (European Recovery Program) countries on capital and current accounts in the fiscal year 1948-49 is estimated at $3,500,000,000—30 per cent less than the 1947 deficit of $7,800,000,000."

The Auxiliary of the Joe Williams post, American Legion, will meet at the Legion hall Wednesday evening. Plans will be completed for the homecoming.

The machines will make parts for gas and water line valves for the Pittsburgh Equitable Meter Co. of Pittsburgh and the Edwards Valve Co. of Chicago, each a part of the Rockwell organization.

The remaining four screw machines are expected to be installed this week so all eight machines will be operated on a five-day basis. Employment at the Crescent has been on a part time basis since Jan. 1.

The President said that in only a few countries was the pace of the first phase of recovery lagging slightly. Yet he declared the second phase—attainment of maximum production necessary to economic independence—has "barely started," and before it ends western Europe must boost output "far above the prewar level."

To win the balance, the report declared, they must give special attention to "the modernization and redirection of industry, the diversion and expansion of exports to

for election next year, and the other two senators spoke at the annual banquet of the federation, which is holding its spring conference.

All three speakers voiced confidence in a Republican victory at the polls in 1950.

Sen. Brewster, new chairman of the senatorial campaign committee, said the Republican defeat in 1948 showed the party needed a "lesson in salesmanship."

He maintained the people were not informed properly of the good work done by the 80th congress.

Bricker, Ohio's junior senator, called the Republican party the only bulwark "against bankruptcy and state socialism."

The federal budget of $42,000-000,000, he said, means Ohio's share is $2,470,000,000 — eight times the cost of the state government. He claimed that 25 per cent of the appraised real estate in Ohio will go to the federal government in taxes.

Presiding at the conference was
Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown,
Dayton, vice chairman of the GOP national committee and Ohio national committeewoman.

Other speakers were Ray Bliss,
Akron, chairman of the GOP state committee, and Mrs. Joseph R. Par-rington, Hawaii, president of the National Federation of Republican
Women's clubs.

Bliss Sells Its
Cleveland Plant

A cutback in the activities of the E. W. Bliss Co., nationally-known manufacturer of hydraulic and metal working machinery, was announced today, but it will have an opposite effect on the Salem plant.

The firm announced the abandonment of its Cleveland plant, active for the past 28 years, when present contracts expire. The plant's 160 employees have been told that operations will be continued there through June, at least.

Louis C. Edgar, Jr., Bliss's new president, said the Cleveland plant always has operated as a surplus unit and it has been decided to handle this production in the future in the plants in Salem and Toledo. The company last year disposed of its Brooklyn, N. Y., plant.
It also has a big plant at Hastings,
Mich., and operate factories at
Derby, England, and St. Owen sur
Seine, France. Headquarters are at Toledo.

The Bliss property in Cleveland has been sold.

President Edgar said the present slackening trend of business caused officials to decide to give up the Cleveland plant. The new president, who succeeded Marshall M. Smith in February, formerly was president of H. & B. American Machine
Co. which manufactures textile machinery.

Bliss has increased its holdings of stock in the Sheller Manufacturing Co. by 77,500 shares at a cost of $1,218,825. This gives it 101,700 shares or about 18% of Sheller stock. Bliss stock last year was split two-for-one. It is traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Edgar announced that R. O. Dutton had been made director of purchases. Dutton formerly was with Easy Washing Machine Co. at Syracuse and before that with Blaw-Knox's Martins Ferry (N. Y.) division.

Proceed With Plans
For Riverlake Conveyor

The Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines, Inc., announced Monday it will proceed at once with detailed engineering for the proposed Ohio River-lake Erie Belt line between East
Liverpool and Lorain.

Engineering work will be spurred to save time, notwithstanding the Ohio legislature's defeat of a bill to grant the project the right of eminent domain.

H. B. Stewart, Jr., of Akron, president of the corporation, scored "pressure lobbying," to which he attributed defeat of the legislation.

Softball Opening In Class "A" Inauspicious

Slugfests Predominate; CIO's 1-0 Victory Only. Real Contest Of Evening

About as inauspicious an opening as Class A softball has had for many a year came about Monday evening in five games, three at West End park and two at Centennial park's north diamond.

The only "classy" ball game of the lot—and it's unusual for the first day in Salem—was the 1-0 contest won by CIO aggregation against the Fischer team, a new Class A entry.

In the other "first-night" affairs, the runs were a dime a dozen and good pitching was virtually non-existent.

In the American league games the Amvets went hog wild on the scoring business, winning out 17-3 despite the fact that the game was called without all the runs actually counted. The Saxons were the losers and without their regular pitcher and catcher would have been better off at home. Things should be improved when the hurler is around.

In the other American league tussle, the National Sanitary had a track meet defeating the Jaycees, also weak on hurling and fielding, 14-3. The Sanitary banged out 12 hits and was aided by walks and four Jaycees errors.

In the National loop, with the exception of the CIO-Fischer contest, things weren't much more than big league. The Democrats whittled away for 15 runs on only nine hits as the Sweeteye group managed an unbelievable 11 runs on just three tiny safeties.

The Igloo and the Electric Furnace—combination that should have resulted in melting somewhere—both waxed hot at the scoring end, the game going to the cooler lads 9-6. The furnace hit seven times to nine for the winners.

In the "contest" of the evening, the CIO hurler, Henry Dermotta, sat the Fischer outfit down carefully and gently with one lone scratch bingle. In turn, his mates managed a comparatively potent four hits and scored the vital run to win out. Dermotta's performance was the closest thing to the usual in the opening day activities.

For the past three seasons some hurler had come up with a no-hitter on the first night, one year two pitchers achieving the coveted honor.

Activity resumes at all three softball diamonds tonight as well as Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

MANAGERS HAVING TIME OF IT THIS BASEBALL SEASON

Shotton, McCarthy Latest To Blow Tops; Decision Hurts Red Sox

By JOE REICHLER (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The month-old baseball season has been packed with odd turns and unexpected happenings, but one piece of script remains unchanged from last year. The managers are having a trying time of it.

Last season was known as the "year of the ace" because no fewer than six big league pitchers knelt with bowed heads before the chopping block. This season is rapidly becoming known as the "year of the blow-up" for the harried skipper.

Burt Shotton of Brooklyn and Joe McCarthy of the Boston Red Sox, two of the milder masterminds, are the latest to blow off steam.

After watching his charges drop three straight to the Braves in Boston, Shotton exploded Sunday.

He ripped into his players with a tongue-lashing the likes of which they had not heard since the departure of Leo Durocher.

McCarthy's explosion came yesterday, but his tirade was directed at the umpires. It came about after the final out was made in the Washington-Boston game, won by the Senators, 3-2.

Plate Umpire Joe Paparella had just ruled that the final out was made before the potential tying run had crossed the plate. This brought McCarthy and the entire Boston team out on the diamond, protesting that Tom O'Brien had crossed the plate before Lou Stringer was tagged after leading second on Pinch Hitter Sam Mele's single. After considerable wrangling, Paparella walked off the field with McCarthy and his Red Sox swarmed around him. Of course, the decision stood.

Every club with the exception of Washington and Boston enjoyed an off-day yesterday. The clubs resume action today.

Yesterday's triumph enabled the Nats to demolish the Philadelphia Athletics for fourth place in the American league.

Mickey Haefner pitched an eight-hitter for his third triumph. He came within a whisker of losing, though, with one out in the ninth and the Red Sox needing a base run to tie. Eddie Stanger singled, Billy Hitchcock filed out, but Birdie Tettich singled and Stringer ran for him.

Mele batted for Losing Pitcher Jack Kramer and singled to right. Outfielder Buddy Lewis quickly retrieved the ball and fired to Shortstop Sam Dentie at second base. Dentie tagged Stringer, who had overrun second base, and Paparella ruled that the final out was accomplished before O'Brien reached the plate.

MAT AND CORSOS WIN "B" OPENERS

Class B's softball competition opened without fanfare at Centennial park Monday, the Men About Town and Corso outfits coming up with first day victories.

Men About Town won handily over Wattersons 9-0, the losers managing only two hits.

In the only other Class B fray, Corsos turned the trick with some finesse 8-3 as the Panthers were put down competently with only three safeties.

18 Teams Entered In "B" District Meet At Reilly Stadium Wednesday Night

At least 18 Class B track teams from Northeastern Ohio are slated to appear in the District meet here Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Meet Manager Fred E. Cope today listed 18 outfits as definitely in the competition and indicated that he anticipated one or two more entries. If 20 teams enter here, four men in each event will qualify for the Class B finals at Columbus, Cope said.

To date Cope has Poland, West Farmington, Waynesburg, Ravenna township, Vienna, Springfield township, Columbiana, North Canton, Marlboro, Sebring, Rootstown, McDonald, Leavittsburg, Braceville, Leetonia, Randolph, Champion and Howland on the list.

Poland, winner of the meet last year, is a definite favorite to repeat this season. Recently Poland copped the Class B division of the famed Ohio Wesleyan relays, a much larger meet than the one here tomorrow.

Poland was a highly regarded track aggregation last season and apparently has all its power back this year.

The second team in the meet here last season was Springfield township, the club figured to give Poland the roughest time this season. Columbiana, fourth team score in the Columbiana county meet last week, may have hopes in several events.

The same set of officials who worked the Salem Night relays and the county meet will be back for the Class B event, Cope said.

Meanwhile, with preparations about completed for the B district meet, Cope announced that things are about set for the big Class A meet here Saturday.

Officially closing the track activity here this year, the Class A event probably will have 22 teams entered. Louisville and Wellsville were the first to file entrance blanks and the full field is due in before Wednesday morning, Cope said.

The A event will qualify four men in each event for Columbus, being definitely assured of 22 teams in the field.

Points in the A meet, Saturday will be 6-4-3-2-1. Four relay teams from each event will go to Columbus, Cope said.

The schedule for events in the B meet tomorrow is as follows:

MAYBE MANSFIELD HAS THE ANSWER TO GRID QUESTION

COLUMBUS, May 17—(UP)—Track coaches' and other critics who think football is hogging the high school athletic picture—especially in the springtime—could bend an ear today in the direction of Augie Morningstar, head coach of a school which grossed $60,754.76 from that sport in 1948.

The Mansfield Tiger football team, coached by Morningstar, netted $658.81 of that gross total after taxes, equipment costs. Stadium construction, and other debts were paid off. The figures were published in The Mansfield News-Journal sports column of Fred Tharp.

The balance, however, before the stadium construction and two notes were retired, came to $33,773.74, which, Morningstar pointed out, "could have been applied to social activities, track, baseball, tennis or golf." And in the future they will be.

The Mansfield school is in the throes of a giant athletic reorganization program—instituted by the low-headed young Morningstar—which promises to equal the halcyon days of Paul Brown at Massillon in the thirties.

Besides sports, Morningstar hopes to have football pay for such extracurricular activities as music, debate, choir and glee clubs, dramatic classes, and a super band, which is what Brown did for Massillon.

"We have most of the activities in our schools now," Morningstar said, "but what we lack is the financial means to assist the teachers and to inspire the pupils to develop their talents to a point where they will be unexcelled by anyone or any school."

Morningstar means to have football pay the freight for his program and pointed out that the $33,773.74 originally netted could have done the trick if it hadn't been for the stadium debt. He notes that basketball netted $44 this past winter.

"... It requires outstanding football teams to fill that stadium," he said, and he means to have them with a first rate football system progressing from grade school to senior high. Regular banquets and awards will go to the junior high schoolers just like the senior athletes.

And track coaches, as well as football coaches, please note, Mansfield has done away with spring football practice. Also, the Tiger track team is one of the strongest in the state, winning its own Mansfield relay carnival last month.

Gillman Shows First Edition Of Bearcats

CINCINNATI, May 17—(AP)—Sid Gillman unveiled his 1949 gridiron Bearcats last night in an intrasquad game before a crowd of 12,000 at the University of Cincinnati's Nippert stadium.

The UC teams gave a good exhibition of Gillman's fast-moving game and when the points were counted Assistant Coach George Blackburn's "Bears" had shaded Assistant Joe Madro's "Cats," 26-25.

St. Layman, 148-pound speedster from Cincinnati, playing with the "Bears," was the standout offensively. He carried the ball six times for 71 yards, scored twice-once on a 91-yard punt return-ran back punts for a total of 202 yards and passed for a touchdown.

Boudreau Worried, But S His Indians Will Rep

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 17—(AP)—Lou Boudreau, shortstop manager of the World Champion Cleveland Indians, is more than a little perturbed about his team—but he thinks they'll repeat.

"Once the warm weather sets in, we'll be okay," Boudreau said last night before an exhibition game with Pittsburgh. Trying to shake off a hitting slump, he started his regular lineup.

On Sunday the Chicago White Sox shut out the Indians twice. Yesterday, Frank Lane, general manager of the Chicago nine, sent Comiskey park's home plate to the Indians' front office—saying he wanted President Bill Veeck to see what it looked like.

Boudreau smiled—a little weakly—when told of the gag but he declared: "We're not hitting, but we will." Boudreau picked up a newspaper, studied the American league standings and declared:

"Look, the Red Sox were seven or eight games out a few days ago, now, they're only five games back of the Yanks. We've played fewer games than the rest and the weather has handicapped us. The teams have played 25 games more and we've only played 15 in the warm weather sets in May."

"It's going to be another race to the wire," the Cleveland skipper continued.

"The Yanks are a lot tougher than some people rate them," he said.

In addition to his team's hitting, Boudreau has had plenty of trouble with a mound staff which was expected to be tops in either league. But here, too, Boudreau thinks warmer weather will iron out his troubles.

Bob Lemon, sidelined with a torn rib cartilage, probably will be out at least 10 more days, Boudreau indicated. He said he expected Bob Feller's sore shoulder to respond to "warm weather treatment" and that Gene Bearden has about recovered from a pulled thigh muscle.

When the Indians pulled into town they were followed by rumors from the Midwest that some of the players had their tomahawks out for Feller. They were supposed to be irked at Rapid Robert because he's won only one and lost two—not much of a record for a fellow supposed to be pulling down $70,000.

"That sort of stuff is too ridiculous even to dignify with a reply," Boudreau declared. "It's funny how those rumors crop up when a team drops a couple of games. No one has anything to say when you're winning."

SPEAKS

for election next year, and the other two senators spoke at the annual banquet of the federation, which is holding its spring conference.

All three speakers voiced confidence in a Republican victory at the polls in 1950.

Sen. Brewster, new chairman of the senatorial campaign committee, said the Republican defeat in 1948 showed the party needed a "lesson in salesmanship."

He maintained the people were not informed properly of the good work done by the 80th congress.

Bricker, Ohio's junior senator, called the Republican party the only bulwark "against bankruptcy and state socialism."

The federal budget of $42,000,000,000, he said, means Ohio's share is $2,470,000,000 — eight times the cost of the state government. He claimed that 25 per cent of the approved real estate in Ohio will go to the federal government in taxes.

Presiding at the conference was Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown, Dayton, vice chairman of the GOP national committee and Ohio national committeewoman.

Other speakers were Ray Bliss, Akron, chairman of the GOP state committee, and Mrs. Joseph R. Farington, Hawaii, president of the National Federation of Republican Women's clubs.

Bliss Sells Its Cleveland Plant

A cutback in the activities of the E. W. Bliss Co., nationally-known manufacturer of hydraulic and metal working machinery, was announced today, but it will have an opposite effect on the Salem plant.

The firm announced the abandonment of its Cleveland plant, active for the past 28 years, when present contracts expire. The plant's 160 employees have been told that operations will be continued there through June, at least.

Louis C. Edgar, Jr., Bliss's new president, said the Cleveland plant always has operated as a surplus unit and it has been decided to handle this production in the future in the plants in Salem and Toledo. The company last year disposed of its Brooklyn, N. Y., plant. It also has a big plant at Hastings, Mich., and operate factories at Derby, England, and St. Owen sur Seine, France. Headquarters are at Toledo.

The Bliss property in Cleveland has been sold. President Edgar said the present slackening trend of business caused officials to decide to give up the Cleveland plant. The new president, who succeeded Marshall M. Smith in February, formerly was president of H. & B. American Machine Co., which manufactures textile machinery.

Bliss has increased its holdings of stock in the Sheller Manufacturing Co. by 77,500 shares at a cost of $1,218,825. This gives it 101,700 shares or about 18% of Sheller stock. Bliss stock last year was split two-for-one. It is traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Edgar announced that R. O. Dutton had been made director of purchases. Dutton formerly was with Easy Washing Machine Co. at Syracuse and before that with Blaw-Knox's Martins Ferry (N. Y.) division.

Proceed With Plans For Riverlake Conveyor

The Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines, Inc., announced Monday it will proceed at once with detailed engineering for the proposed Ohio River-Lake Erie Belt line between East Liverpool and Lorain.

Engineering work will be spurred to save time, notwithstanding the Ohio legislature's defeat of a bill to grant the project the right of eminent domain.

H. B. Stewart, Jr., of Akron, president of the corporation, scored "pressure lobbying," to which he attributed defeat of the legislation.

OBITUARY

MRS. W. D. GAILEY

LISBON, May 17—Burial of Mrs. Helen M. Gailey, wife of W. D. Gailey of Cleveland, who died Sunday, will be made in Lisbon cemetery. Funeral service will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday at the Sexton funeral home, Cleveland.

Surviving are her husband; a son, W. D. Jr.; a daughter, Elizabeth; two brothers and two sisters.

Softball Opening In Class "A" Inauspicious

Slugfests Predominate; CIO's 1-0 Victory Only, Real Contest Of Evening

About as inauspicious an opening as Class A softball has had for many a year came about Monday evening in five games, three at West End park and two at Centennial park's north diamond.

The only "classy" ball game of the lot—and it's unusual for the first day in Salem—was the 1-0 contest won by CIO aggregation against the Fischer team, a new Class A entry.

In the other "first-night" affairs, the runs were a dime a dozen and good pitching was virtually non-existent.

In the American league games, the Amvets went hog wild on the scoring business, winning out 17-3 despite the fact that the game was called without all the runs actually counted. The Saxons were the losers and without their regular pitcher and catcher would have been better off at home. Things should be improved when the hurler is around.

In the other American loop tussle, the National Sanitary had a track meet defeating the Jaycees, also weak on hurling and fielding, 14-3. The Sanitary banged out 12 hits and was aided by walks and four Jaycees errors.

In the National loop, with the exception of the CIO-Fischer contest, things weren't much more big league. The Democrats whammed away for 15 runs on only nine hits as the Sweeteye group managed an unbelievable 11 runs on just three tiny safeties.

The Igloo and the Electric Furnace—combination that should have resulted in melting some where—both waxed hot at the scoring end, the game going to the cooler lads 9-6. The furnace hit seven times to nine for the winners.

In the "contest" of the evening, the CIO hurler, Henry Dermotta, sat the Fischer outfit down carefully and gently with one lone scratch bingle. In turn, his mates managed a comparatively potent four hits and scored the vital run to win out. Dermotta's performance was the closest thing to the usual in the opening day activities.

For the past three seasons some hurler had come up with a no-hitter on the first night, one year two pitchers achieving the coveted honor.

Activity resumes at all three softball diamonds tonight as well as Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

MANAGERS HAVING TIME OF IT THIS BASEBALL SEASON

Shotton, McCarthy Latest To Blow Tops; Decision Hurts Red Sox

By JOE REICHLER

(Associated Press Sports Writer) The month-old baseball season has been packed with odd turns and unexpected happenings, but one piece of script remains unchanged from last year. The managers are having a trying time of it.

Last season was known as the "year of the axe" because no fewer than six big league pilots knelt with bowed heads before the chopping block. This season is rapidly becoming known as the "year of the blow-up" for the harried skippers.

Burt Shotton of Brooklyn and Joe McCarthy of the Boston Red Sox, two of the milder masterminds, are the latest to blow off steam.

After watching his charges drop three straight to the Braves in Boston, Shotton really exploded Sunday. He ripped into his players with a tongue-lashing the likes of which they had not heard since the departure of Leo Durocher.

McCarthy's explosion came yesterday, but his tirade was directed at the umpires. It came about after the final out was made in the Washington-Boston game, won by the Senators, 2-2.

Plate umpire Joe Paparella had just ruled that the final out was made before the potential tying run had crossed the plate. This brought McCarthy and the entire Boston team out on the diamond, protesting that Tom O'Brien had crossed the plate before Lou Stringer was tagged after rounding second on Pinch Hitter Sam Mele's single. After considerable wrangling, Paparella walked off the field with McCarthy and his Red Sox swarmed around him. Of course, the decision stood.

Every club with the exception of Washington and Boston enjoyed an off-day yesterday. The clubs resume action today.

Yesterday's triumph enabled the Nats to deadlock the Philadelphia Athletics for fourth place in the American league.

Mickey Haefner pitched an eight-hitter for his third triumph. He came within a whisker of losing, though. With one out in the ninth and the Red Sox needing one run to tie O'Brien singled, Billy Ellichcock fled out, but Birdie Tebbetts singled and Stringer ran for him.

Mele batted for Losing Pitcher Jack Kramer and singled to right. Outfielder Buddy Lewis quickly retrieved the ball and fired to Shortstop Sam Dente at second base. Dente tagged Stringer, who had overthrown second base, and Paparella ruled that the final out was accomplished before O'Brien reached the plate.

MAT AND CORSOS WIN "B" OPENERS

Class B's softball competition opened without fanfare at Centennial park Monday, the Men About Town and Corso outfits coming up with first day victories.

Men About Town handily over Watsons 9-6, the losers managing only two hits.

In the only other Class B fray, Corsos turned the trick with some finesse 8-3 as the Panthers were put down competently with only three safeties.

18 Teams Entered In "B" District Meet At Reilly Stadium Wednesday Night

At least 18 Class B track teams from Northeastern Ohio are slated to appear in the District meet here Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Meet Manager Fred E. Cope today listed 18 outfits as definitely in the competition and indicated that he anticipated one or two more entries. If 20 teams enter here, four men in each event will qualify for the Class B finals at Columbus, Cope said.

To date Cope has Poland, West Farmington, Waynesburg, Ravenna township, Vienna, Springfield township, Columbiana, North Canton, Marlboro, Sebring, Rootstown, McDonald, Leavittsburg, Braceville, Leetonia, Randolph, Champion and Howland on the list.

Poland, winner of the meet last year, is a definite favorite to repeat this season. Recently Poland copped the Class B division of the famed Ohio Wesleyan relays, a much larger meet than the one here tomorrow.

Poland was a highly regarded track aggregation last season and apparently has all its power back this year.

The second team in the meet here last season was Springfield township, the club figured to give Poland the roughest time this season. Columbiana, fourth team score in the Columbiana county meet last week, may have hopes in several events.

The same set of officials who worked the Salem Night relays and the county meet will be back for the Class B event, Cope said.

Meanwhile, with preparations about completed for the B district meet, Cope announced that things are about set for the big Class A meet here Saturday.

Officially closing the track activity here this year, the Class A event probably will have 22 teams entered. Louisville and Wellsville were the first to file entrance blanks and the full field is due in before Wednesday morning, Cope said.

The A event will qualify four men in each event for Columbus, being definitely assured of 22 teams in the field.

Points in the A meet Saturday will be 6-4-3-2-1. Four relay teams from each event will go to Columbus, Cope said.

The schedule for events in the B meet tomorrow is as follows:

Gillman Shows First Edition Of Bearcats

CINCINNATI, May 17—(AP)—Sid Gillman unveiled his 1949 gridiron Bearcats last night in an intrasquad game before a crowd of 12,000 at the University of Cincinnati's Nippert stadium.

The UC teams gave a good exhibition of Gillman's fast-moving game and when the points were counted Assistant Coach George Blackburn's "Bears" had shaded Assistant Joe Madro's "Cats," 20-25.

Si Stayman, 148-pound speedster from Cincinnati, playing with the "Bears," was the standout offensively. He carried the ball six times for 71 yards, scored twice—once on a 91-yard punt return—ran back punts for a total of 202 yards and passed for a touchdown.

MAYBE MANSFIELD HAS THE ANSWER TO GRID QUESTION

COLUMBUS, May 17—(UP)—Track coaches and other critics who think football is hogging the high school athletic picture—especially in the springtime—could bend an ear today in the direction of Augie Morningstar, head coach of a school which grossed $60,754.76 from that sport in 1948.

Parisians Urged To Ignore Princess Margaret On Visit

By GODFREY ANDERSON
PARIS, May 17.—(AP)—Parisians are being asked in advance not to gather in crowds and stare at Britain's Princess Margaret when she pays her first visit to the French capital towards the end of this month.

King Edward VII of England, who loved to stroll along the boulevards like a private citizen when he came to France, is supposed to have once remarked:

"Paris is the only city in the world where people have the good breeding not to pay too much attention to those who are too well known."

Now, while Paris newspapers have been printing in detail accounts of how the princess was bothered by two persistent cameramen in Capri, the same newspapers are making a plea that she should not be noticed while here.

The best way to let the princess appreciate the true face of Paris will be not to bother her by staring curiously and to spare her the assaults of journalists and photographers which so spoiled her stay in Capri and Rome," commented the evening newspaper Paris-Press.

"Queens of the stage and screen are accustomed to these excesses. For a young princess whose dearest wish is to get to know the authentic life of our country, nothing would touch her more than this simplicity which comes from the heart and this light incognito, whose transparent veil is uniquely woven from kindness and friendship."

Despite the current expression of such delicate sentiments, there is little likelihood that Princess Margaret will be able to window-shop in the Rue de la Paix without being noticed.

There are too many tourists here for that. Besides, a number of Paris newspapers did not hesitate to front page the very pictures whose taking they had criticized in Italy.

Most popular was the one showing the princess in a bathing suit as she tripped down the beach to bathe with her shirt-tailed escort at Capri.

The morning newspaper Ce Matin, which said the picture had been taken "by an indiscreet photographer hidden among the rocks," declared on its front page it would cause a scandal in England.

The scandal, it went on to explain with Gallic gallantry, would not be on account of the picture showing "the splendid figure of the young princess," but because her escort (T.O. Harvey, the queen's private secretary) was wearing a hat while leading the princess, which, the paper continued, was "a little off-hand."

The mass circulation France-Soir reproduced the same picture on page one, side by side with a Gilles cartoon from the Daily Express, showing two shirt-tailed city businessmen with bowler hats and umbrellas in deference to "the latest male fashion from the continent."

Before announcement was made that Princess Margaret would include the Paris visit in her trip, several French newspapers claimed there had been some criticism that she had gone to Italy, a former enemy country, before paying her first visit to the allied capital.

The princess will stay as the guest of Sir Oliver Harvey, the British ambassador. The assembly said no plans have yet been made for her visit and the exact date of her arrival in Paris is not known.

COAL INDUSTRY PONDERS LEWIS

Latest Move May be Aimed At Southern Operators, Is New Belief

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(UP)—The coal industry was wondering today if John L. Lewis' "divide and conquer" campaign isn't designed to push southern coal operators into a corner.

Although wary as always of trying to second guess the mine workers' president, some industry sources were half expecting Lewis to invite northern and "captive" coal operators to meet with him here at the very time his union is negotiating with southern operators in Bluefield, W. Va.

These sources believe he may be following the strategy he used in 1947—the last year the southerners tried separate negotiations. At that time, Lewis let the southern group stay at one Washington hotel while he negotiated a contract at another with northern operators and steel companies owning "captive" mines.

Then Lewis insisted that all other operators—including the southern—accept the same terms. They did.

So far Lewis hasn't even sent contract termination notices to the northern and "captive" operators under the Taft-Hartley act. Technically those notices should have been sent early this month on the contract which is slated to expire June 30th.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Assn., is optimistic and confident about the Bluefield parley, which is scheduled to begin on May 25. Moody and Lewis announced agreement on the date and site yesterday.

A large segment of the Southern Coal Producers association, however, is known to have opposed originally the separate negotiation plan and to have favored a united coal industry front against Lewis.

U. S. FORCES IN EUROPE HIGHER THAN A YEAR AGO

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(AP)—The United States today has up to 20,000 more military men in Europe than a year ago—because Russia insisted on trying to blockade Berlin.

The total American strength—now appears to be over 115,000. A year ago it was a little under 97,000. The figures do not include crews of U. S. ships in the area.

The airlift continues, despite the lifting of the blockade, pending possible developments.

The increased military manpower is chiefly in the air force—the air crews and thousands of maintenance and supply men sent there to run the Berlin airlift. However, a part of the increase also is accounted for by Navy personnel, including air crews of transports, assigned to the airlift.

No significant increase in strength was required for the army to begin its part in the airlift—providing ground transportation, cargo handling, guards, housekeeping duties.

Not Airforce

The build-up in American strength in Europe which Russian persistence in the Berlin blockade compelled does not include air force combat units assigned to Europe as part of rotational training programs or on permanent station in the occupied zone. These assignments were made before the pressures arose out of the Berlin impasse.

At the moment, four air combat units are in the European area: Two B-29 groups based in England and there on three-month rotational training programs; two fighter groups in the U. S. zone of Germany.

A B-29 group consists of 30 aircraft, each plane having a normal crew of about a dozen men.

A fighter group is 75 planes, one pilot per plane.

The B-29s are serviced and maintained by the USAF depot at Burtonwood, England, whose primary function currently is maintenance of planes used in the airlift.

The two fighter groups have their own supporting organizations, thus actually composing a full wing each and each with about 1,700 men.

The airlift has been operated with five troop carrier groups and one provisional group of air force planes, the planes used chiefly as cargo carriers. Aircraft, including Navy, assigned to the airlift total 342, the largest part of them four-engine transports. Normally, a troop carrier group has a complement of about 800 men and with its supporting organizations, totals about 1,500. However, the unusual conditions of the Berlin airlift is assumed to have required a larger personnel for the units.

Europe Needs Rain Along With The Marshall Plan

By JAMES C. AUSTIN
WASHINGTON, May 17—(UP)—Europe needs rain along with the Marshall plan.

Crop prospects are below average for southern Europe, but average or better for other Marshall plan areas.

That report was given to Economic Cooperation Administration officials in Paris by agricultural specialists.

The specialists said that a crop yield survey made as of May 1 had indicated that moisture reserves throughout Europe are low, and that this is the big question in how well western Europe will feed herself this year.

The experts gave these forecasts:

1. Total bread grain harvest in Marshall plan countries is likely to be smaller this year because plantings are smaller than in 1948.

2. In the United Kingdom, Ireland, Scandinavia and the low countries, crop conditions at present are average or better. In Greece, Italy and Turkey bread grain production will almost certainly be lower than last year.

The experts, it was said, gave these capsule estimates on crop prospects for western Europe:

Austria—Spring grain planting completed earlier than usual. Condition of winter grain good.

Belgium—Plantings of winter wheat up about 10 per cent over last year, while winter rye and coarse grains are up 16 per cent. More rain needed.

Western Germany—Crops in good condition despite sub-soil moisture deficiency. Bread grain plantings are down and coarse grain plantings up about four per cent each.

Denmark—General crop outlook better than average.

France—One of the driest winters in 75 years. Pessimistic prospects for fall-sown grains. Wheat, Barley, oilseeds expected to be up over last year; oats down.

French North Africa—Grain crop prospects generally favorable.

Greece—Delayed winter grain seedings has reduced outlook for yields to about 28 per cent less than last year.

Ireland—Total of wheat area plantings about one-fourth below year ago; coarse grains about the same. A 10 per cent or more cut in sugar beet acreage forecast.

Italy—Coarse grain areas about same as last year; bread grain areas up slightly. Fodder short.

ages already developed in central Italy.

Netherlands—Soil moisture conditions favorable, but yields of wheat and rye expected to be under 1948. Areas of bread and coarse grains will be larger than last year but at the expense of potato areas.

Norway—Weather conditions normal; yields may be six to eight per cent down from last year, however.

United Kingdom—Winter grain somewhat more advanced than usual, and prospects are for lower yields than exceptionally high ones of 1948. Wheat areas may be 10 percent lower than last year; coarse grain plantings higher.

FORD CO. ANXIOUS TO AID MEDIATION

DETROIT, May 17—(AP)—The strike-crippled Ford Motor Co., where hardly a wheel now turns with 100,000 men idle, promises "all possible assistance" today to any federal peace effort.

On the 12th day of the tie-up of virtually all of its great string of factories, however, Ford indicated an adamant stand against union demands, declaring it would resist "to the utmost."

This preceded another negotiation effort today.

President Henry Ford II gave a qualified approval to government intervention as the strike's cost in wages and production spiraled to an unofficially estimated $50,000,000.

The company and UAW-CIO exchanged charges after a weekend which saw:

1. The company's rejection of a union settlement offer and the union rejection of a company counter-proposal. Each said the other had made no fundamental change in its position.

2. A request for immediate federal intervention by UAW President Walter Reuther.

3. A Ford statement indicating the company would be cool toward a reopening of new contract negotiations if the strike remains unsettled.

Because of its topical situation and reliance on monsoon rains, India is more vulnerable to crop failures and famines than any other country in the world.

Lewis Supports Truman's Stand

WASHINGTON, May 17—(UP)—John L. Lewis has thrown his weight behind President Truman's "no compromise" stand on repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor law.

But house Democratic leaders were having no truck with such views and were proceeding with plans for compromise legislation. AFL and CIO leaders, too, have agreed to some compromises in order to get the repealer through congress.

The view of Lewis, United Mine Workers president, were set forth Saturday in an editorial in the Union Journal. It said there can be no compromise on the right of all Americans to enjoy the rights and privileges of first class citizenship.

"Alleged labor leaders who agree with politicians to accept any thing less than total repeal of this infamous law betray their constituents," the Journal said.

SGT. HAYES

he was assigned to recruiting work and was sent to Pittsburgh and then to his home town of Salem in October, 1948. When the office was closed here in April he said, "I've had enough soldiering," and he received a well-earned retirement discharge.

Changes Have Been Made

Hayes has acquired an army philosophy. He said that you can't compare the old army with the army of today. "When I first went into service a man had to get out and really soldier. The recruits of that day went through intensive training at their first camp and knew just what was expected of them when they were assigned to a post. A corporal was a high-non-commissioned officer in those days and he had responsibilities to match," he recalls. "The discipline was much rougher in those days. The strict rules and general orders were observed at all times."

He remembers that there were more ceremonies and more elaborately observed drills and colorful parades. Hayes said that in early army years he stood guard mount every night.

There is a difference in enlistment requirements of yesterday and today, he declares. Formerly a good physical condition and a normal amount of formal education was all that was needed. Now a higher amount of education is required and enlistees usually are chosen from their record of specialized knowledge in order to handle the modern equipment and tools of the army. Training schools have been set up by the army to teach soldiers how to operate the up-to-date equipment.

Hayes said airplanes of the World War I army might be called "egg-crates," compared to the super-speed ships used today. He remembers the mule carts that were used to haul most everything around army posts when he first enlisted and he has seen the steps of progress in tanks. In World War I the first tanks had solid metal tracks, had one turret and held only one man.

Some tanks today carry five or six men as crews. During service days he has traveled by foot—he has taken 200-mile hikes—small troop transports, "L.C.T." of Landing Craft Infantry, Motor convoy, tank convoy and he has flown to some posts.

Hayes feels that his more than 27 years in the Army has benefited him in many ways. "I would never have gotten such a wide scope of education through travel in the States and abroad, in any other way." He credits his excellent physical condition at 54 to the training of the army.

"But then," Hayes said, "there are some other things in life and I'm going to catch up on some of the things the army did not give me time to do."

He is living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayes, N. Lincoln ave.
